

Experienced Group Fitness Instructors

Curtis Personalized Health Management is currently looking for group fitness and yoga instructors to join our team. We believe in building a community through employee participation in a healthy corporate culture.

Being a part of the Curtis Health team means being a part of a supportive and motivated team of fitness minded individuals that share in a passion for delivering excellence. Our team values the contributions of each team member and promotes fun and creativity in our workplaces while encouraging members to meet new challenges.

Job Requirements:

Optional: Current personal training certification (BCRPA, canfitpro, ACE or equivalent)

Current group fitness instructor certification (BCRPA, canfitpro, ACE or equivalent)

Current First Aid and CPR

$2 million in personal liability insurance

The ideal candidate for this position will have at least 2 years of teaching experience, along with the ability to teach in multiple class formats. Classes are typically 45 minutes in length.

Applicants being considered for this position will be asked to provide scanned copies of their certifications as well as instruct a class on a single trial basis.

Rate of pay:

All rates will be based on level of experience.

For all interested candidates, please submit your resume to career@curtishealth.com.

